

National Theatre

Foodwork (part of Network production) onstage seating Terms and Conditions

- You may enter the ballot for on-stage seats online only via nationaltheatre.org.uk
- Participation in the ballot is free
- Winners will be randomly selected and will then have the chance of purchasing tickets via the website for the run of the production
- The ballot will open on 7 September and will close to entries on 26 September at 12 noon. The winners will be notified by email on 27 September and tickets must be booked by 2 October at 12 noon
- Only winners will be contacted. Please ensure to check any spam or junk mail folders
- Only 1 entry per person per ballot is valid
- Entrants must be 18 or over
- Winners must select their menu at the point of booking. We will make every effort to accommodate dietary requirements but this cannot be guaranteed at this time. Please contact restaurantreservations@nationaltheatre.org.uk with any specific requests
- Ballot entries are not transferable
- We cannot guarantee returns for the on-stage seating, however please contact the Box Office first to see if your request can be accommodated
- All tickets will be held for collection at the Box Office and will not be sent out in advance
- Tickets are limited to two per customers either at the bar stool seats (£75), or at a table (£95), and you must book two tickets - we cannot accommodate solo diners. Disabled concessionary rate is £75 for all tickets, please contact the Box Office for any access requirements.
- Select your own seat is not available, seating will be allocated by the National Theatre Box Office
- On-stage ticket holders must arrive between 6.45pm - 7pm for evening performances and 1.15pm - 1.30pm for matinees. Ticket holders who arrive after these times, may not be able to experience the full menu. Where possible, latecomers will be re-allocated seats, which may not reflect tickets originally purchased, and refunds will not be provided
- Customers will need to bring valid photo ID when collecting tickets
- Entry Pass entrants can only be successful for the Entry Pass allocation
- The National Theatre reserves the right to refuse admission to the Theatre and request any ticket holder to leave the Theatre and take any appropriate action to enforce this right
- Tickets may not, without written consent of the National Theatre, be resold for commercial purposes or at a premium. If a ticket is sold in breach of this condition, the bearer of the ticket will be refused admission
