Peter Pan – recorded live during its sell out run at the National Theatre – will be a Saturday matinee on June 10th in the latest broadcast from National Theatre Live.

When Peter Pan, leader of the Lost Boys, loses his shadow, headstrong Wendy helps him to reattach it. In return, she is invited to Neverland, where Tinker Bell the fairy, Tiger Lily and the vengeful Captain Hook await and a riot of magic, music and make-believe ensues.

A delight for children and adults alike, Sally Cookson (Jane Eyre, Treasure Island) directs this wondrously inventive production of JM Barrie's much loved tale in this co-production with Bristol Old Vic theatre.

Launched in 2009, National Theatre Live broadcasts have been seen by an audience of over 6.5 million people at 2500 venues in 60 countries.
